

Youth Scholarship Application

Parks, Recreation & Cultural Services department scholarship program offers a 75% discount to eligible youth, ages 17 & under for qualifying recreation programs and activities. Scholarships help make our programs and activities more accessible to the community and can be used to reduce the cost of out-of-school programs and qualifying youth programs. Scholarships are only available to City of Moses Lake community members and are based on both income and family size. Currently, applicants are eligible for one scholarship per quarter (Fall/Winter, Spring, and Summer). Please read through the application process below and answer all questions completely. All information will be confidential.

How to Apply – complete the attached application (print legibly), sign, and return it along with the following:

- Proof of Moses Lake Residency (utility bill)
- Proof of Income – copy of your current income tax return; or current W2/1099 form; or a current paycheck stub(s) showing gross household income and current documentation (actual award letters) showing all income such as child support, SSI, food stamps, etc. that you receive.
